

Commonwealth of Virginia
Department of Criminal Justice Services

State Aid to Localities with Police Departments ("599" Funds)

Non-Supplanting Certification

The appropriation for this program includes a requirement that each locality receiving State Aid to Localities With Police Departments ("599" funds) must certify to the Department of Criminal Justice Services the amount of local funding it provided (budgeted) to support public safety services and certify that the "599" funding received was used to supplement, not supplant, the local funding.

For the purposes of this certification, use your locality's definition of "public safety services" as reflected in its approved budget and denote the services included.

Local funds, exclusive of state or federal funds, appropriated for public safety services in Fiscal Year 2015 (July 1, 2014-June 30, 2015): $_____.

Services Included: (use attachment if necessary)

This certification must be signed below by one of the following: the city, county or town manager; the county executive; the mayor, the chairman of the Board of Supervisors.

By signing this document, I certify that the amount stated above is correct and that the locality noted below used state "599" funds to supplement the local funds provided for public safety services.
